Civil Jurisdiction in San Juan Island

Judge Dennison of Washington Territory has lately delivered an interesting and able opinion upon the question of civil jurisdiction in San Juan Island. The question arose as follows

At a previous term of this Court the defendants were indicted for a misdemeanor or trespass alleged to have been committed on the Island of San Juan which was included within the boundaries of the county of Whatcom as defined by the statutes of this Territory The defendants at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed were [illegible] of a company of U S soldiers [illegible] on the Island Warrants for their arrest were issued under the hand of [illegible] the office [illegible] the sheriff of Whatcom county [illegible] met with resistance actual or threatened [illegible] execute the warrants [illegible] arrests [illegible] The prosecuting attorney now applies for an alias warrant [illegible] the question [illegible] to determine [illegible] the two governments, the United States and Great Britain the island of San Juan belongs That is a question which has long been a subject of controversy between the United States and Great Britain, and is still undetermined and they alone can decide it. But the question which I am called upon to decide is a subordinate one and is this: Is the present status or condition of the Island such as to justify the Courts and officers of this Territory in exercising jurisdiction [illegible] If this question is answered in the affirmative then an alias warrant should be granted, if in the negative the alias warrant should be refused

The Court then proceeds to state the history of the relations and pretentions of the American and English governments to the disputed territory and from this summary of facts makes the following well founded conclusions

1 That the boundary line between Washington Territory and Vancouver's Island verbally described in the Treaty of 1846 has never been located and determined and that, so far as that part of the boundary line is concerned the first article of the Treaty of 1846 has never yet been carried into effect

2 That neither of the two governments has ever yielded or surrendered to the other the right of sovereignty over San Juan and the other islands lying between the Rosario Strait and the Canal de Haro

3 That these islands are disputed territory and that any determined exercise of the exclusive right of sovereignty on the part of either government would lead to a declaration of war by the other

The opinion then shows that since 1859 the Island by virtue of the Scott-Baines compact recognized by both governments has been exclusively under military government and that therefore the civil courts of neither government have any jurisdiction in the premises

Of the correctness of this statement and conclusion there can be no question in the mind of any well informed person

The territorial limits and boundaries of the United States are subjects which belong to the political power of the United States to regulate and control In this respect the judicial power follows the political without inquiring into the propriety or impropriety of its action Over this question of boundary the Territory of Washington has no authority or power When the United States settles this controversy with Great Britain or concludes to assert its authority over San Juan without reference to the claim of the latter then the American courts must act accordingly But in the meantime by compact of the two governments San Juan is to be deemed disputed territory and not subject to the civil jurisdiction of either

Ever since the exhibition of blind bravado by Harney upon this subject in 1859, there has been a disposition upon the part of some persons in Washington Territory to engage the local authorities in this conflict in defiance of the proper authorities and utter disregard of the public good

On this account and others we are glad to see this decision of the court and trust it may serve to quiet the class of people who affect to believe that the Legislature of a Territory by incorporating San Juan in the county of Whatcom, can thereby withdraw the question of boundary from the jurisdiction of the two general governments, to itself

In conclusion we give the closing paragraph of the opinion, first premising that the threatened resort to arms in the last sentence had better have been omitted The local Cerberus may relish the decision the better for this sop but the opinion would more become the learned Judge without it

In the course of the argument to which I have listened, much stress was laid upon the fact that since the treaty of 1846 various acts and things have been done by American citizens and officials in the assertion of the right of sovereignty over San Juan To this it may be answered that British subjects and officials have done many things of the same import, and with the same view These various acts and things may be evidence that both parties have claimed the island since 1846 but they do not prove that the island [illegible] or that either may right[illegible] fully exercise exclusive jurisdiction over it Besides if the Courts of the Territory have jurisdiction in this particular case they have it in all cases that may arise on the Island If an American citizen may be arrested and tried in this Court for an offence alleged to have been committed on San Juan a British subject may be arrested and tried in like manner for an offence committed there The jurisdiction exists complete and unrestricted or not at all Perhaps a joint civil occupation of the island might have been established in accordance with the proposition of the [illegible] Douglas but it would have been an arrangement more anomalous than that which now exists As I have already intimated this is not the proper time or place to discuss the question of title to San Juan or to give any construction to the first article of the treaty of 1846 If it were I think it might be shown that the claim made by the United States under the treaty is incontestible This, however would have no particular bearing on the present question The title to the islands lying between the Canal de Haro and the Rosario Straits is in dispute and has been since 1846 The right of sovereignty over them is in a state of suspension awaiting the action of the two governments San Juan is under military rule and has been so since 1859 How long this state of things will continue is uncertain But unless a change is effected before long it is possible if not probable, that the old controversy between the two governments about 54° 40 and the boundary line may be reopened and settled anew either by negotiation, or by arguments which diplomatic agents are not accustomed to use

IN THE DOLDRUMS—The Washington Express ultra Democratic, thus complains of the party [illegible] masses

The croakers are about again They made their appearance here in swarms immediately after the New York nominations For a time like the seventeen year locusts they disappeared but recently they have again emerged from their holes If only Hancock had been nominated If [illegible] had been taken up! If [illegible] had been [illegible] If [illegible] had been the candidate! is buzzed around by this class It is heard especially from those whose fidelity to our party is at least questionable Is not the right place of most of these people in the Radical organization?

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

[illegible] Monday Oct 26 1868

[illegible]

Mr Crooks in the House offered a joint resolution providing for a joint convention at 2 o'clock P M, which was adopted The Senate concurred [illegible] the proceeding [illegible] to elect Pilot [illegible] and Com[illegible] Bay C[illegible] [illegible] Insane Asylum State Librarian Board of Visiting Physicians for Insane Asylum [illegible] This however was only a part of the programme [illegible] the Democratic caucus [illegible] It was the intention to do [illegible] whatever was no possibility of [illegible] between the houses [illegible] The convention [illegible] there [illegible] whatever the unscrupulous Democratic majority might choose to perpetrate One purpose as determined upon in caucus was to pass a resolution declaring that Gov Woods was not elected to the office of Governor, that Jas. K. Kelly is entitled to the office and to appoint a committee to make and declare a new canvass of votes There was another plank or two in the programme, of which I shall speak hereafter

THE PERJURED SCOUNDRELS RECEIVE INSTRUCTIONS

Chapman offered a joint resolution instructing our Senators and Representative in Congress to give their paramount influence to secure the aid asked for in House joint memorial No 1—Chapman's railroad memorial Adopted When this went into the Senate Mr Miller moved to amend by inserting and House joint memorial No 2 Mr Bayley moved to amend the amendment by inserting "and all other memorials passed by this Legislative Assembly" Mr Brown moved to further amend by inserting "and the joint resolution instructing our Senators to resign" The President ruled that this last amendment could not be piled upon the others that an amendment to an amendment was as far as amendments could go Dr Bayley's amendment was voted down and Miller's was adopted Mr Brown then again offered his amendment and it was voted down The Senate concurred in the resolution as amended and the House subsequently concurred in the amendment So our Perjured Scoundrels" are instructed by the Ku Kluxes to go in paramountly for the northern branch of the Union Pacific Railroad and paramountly for the Oregon and California road

A PLANK IN THE CAUCUS PROGRAMME

Up to Saturday night the Democrats had fought against the proposition to name a day for an adjournment sine die They had a two-fold [illegible] for this First they had fooled away the greater part of the session making "records" and buncombe speeches and playing strategy to circumvent the minority and the state officers, and they hoped by prolonging the session to an unreasonable and tedious length, to worry out the Republicans and that enough of them would go off home to leave the two houses in the possession of a Democratic two thirds vote They could then in the Democratic lawless way of doing things, not only pass bills over the Governor's veto, but could reconsider the vote by which the House failed to pass over the veto the bill to remove Major Berry and then pass it. This was a part of the programme as adopted in the Democratic caucus On Saturday night, at a late hour the House took up the resolution for adjournment which was adopted by the Senate on the 22d inst amended it to provide for adjournment on Monday evening and concurred in the resolution On Sunday evening the Democrats held another caucus as is reported, and determined on staying several days longer—until Wednesday night at the least They were actuated to this by the belief that most of the Republicans would be gone this morning In pursuance of the programme Col Chapman moved, this morning, to reconsider the vote by which the resolution to adjourn was adopted The Speaker said it had been sent back to the Senate and could not be reached Thus this first backward step on the final adjournment was baulked In the afternoon—subsequent to the resignations in the House—Stout moved in the Senate to reconsider the vote by which the Senate adopted the resolution To this it was objected by the Republican members not only that the time prescribed by law for the reconsideration of a vote had expired, but that the resolution having been sent to and acted upon by the House was not subject to reconsideration This point had been decided affirmatively in both houses over and over again, and it was the well established rule everywhere In characteristic disregard however of law, rule and usage the Democratic majority of the Senate proceeded to reconsider the vote but stopped short of retaking the vote on adoption A message however, was sent to the House this evening, to the effect that the Senate had reconsidered

THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

This measure was not introduced till last Friday—the 40th day of the session It was then read the first time and on the following afternoon it was read the second time ordered printed and referred to the Committee of the whole, or rather without being actually so referred, was treated as though it had been The Republican members in each House repeatedly inquired why the Committee of Ways and Means did not bring in the bill After its introduction, they asked again and again to have it taken up and acted upon, but always without success. The Democrats persisted in holding it back always replying to the Republicans that they did not dare to go home without passing it It was simply held as a bugbear to prevent the Republican members from leaving and thus breaking up a quorum On Saturday two or three attempts were made to get it up To day no less than [illegible] attempts were made in that direction [illegible] them fruitless Early in the [illegible] Mr Davenport moved to take it up and called for the yeas and nays which resulted in yeas 13—all Republicans—and nays 22—all Democrats This too in the face of the fact that both Houses had agreed to adjourn sine die to-day After action by the House on two or three bills Mr Davenport again moved to take up the bill but his motion was not regarded Again, after a brief lapse of time Mr Gazley moved to take up the bill The Speaker ruled the motion out of order because [illegible] it was referred to the Committee of the Whole Again after the house had acted upon one or two other matters Mr Gazley moved that the House go into Committee of the Whole to consider the bill Chapman objected and asked why gentlemen were so anxious to get up the appropriation bill Gazley rose to a point of order and said that his motion to take up the appropriation bill was still pending The Speaker [illegible] entertain the motion and the clerk went on to read another bill Here were four separate attempts on the last day of the session by Republican members to have the bill taken up One of them was voted down by a strict party vote one was ruled out of order and two of them treated with disregard It cannot be said that Republicans are responsible for the failure of the bill The Democrats did not intend to pass it

REPORT ON TREASURER'S ACCOUNTS

On motion of Davenport the report of the committee to investigate the books and accounts of the Treasurer was taken from the table and adopted and one hundred copies ordered printed On Saturday night when the report was submitted the House refused to print but the Democrats finding that it would find its way to the public thought best to reconsider that little piece of meanness

A DEMOCRATIC RETRENCHMENT MEASURE

Alexander of Linn Democrat offered a resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution [illegible] all [illegible] members $3 00 per day but not to exceed in the aggregate $190 for per diem Gray Democrat [illegible] amend the proportion so as to allow $2 per day and not to exceed in the aggregate $[illegible] 00 [illegible] Gray then moved to make the per diem $4 which was agreed to He then [illegible] and [illegible] The resolution was then adopted—24 to 13

THE INSANE ASYLUM BILL

The Senate bill to provide for the erection of an Insane Asylum was taken up and passed The Senate this evening passed a resolution asking the Governor to return it for the alleged reason that the signatures of the President and Speaker had been obtained to it before it had been submitted to the enrolling committee If the Governor sends it back the Democrats will manage someway to kill it They have numerous short cuts to reach anything of that kind, and they never hesitate to take short cuts when the plain road don't suit them

THE MACHINE GETS "BUSTED"

At a quarter before two o'clock this afternoon, during a call of the House the Republican members who still remain here presented the Speaker with certificates of the Governor's acceptance of their resignations and retired from the Hall This thing fell upon the Democratic majority like a thunder clap in a clear sky, and they immediately ordered the lobby cleared, and went into secret session Reporters were excluded along with the rest and it is doubtful if the world will ever know just how the Democratic arrangement expressed itself Even the curtains of the door were drawn down so that no one could look in. This Ku Klux Konklave remained in session about an hour when a recess was taken till 7 o'cl'k. The withdrawal of the Republican members left the House without a quorum and no further business can be transacted unless another short cut can be found.

THE BROKEN WHEEL STILL TURNS.

The Klan held a session again in the evening When the roll was called, the names of the resigned members were called with the rest. The Speaker announced no quorum present Chapman offered a resolution which was adopted, to appoint a committee of two to wait on the [illegible]ary and ascertain what members had filed what purported to be resignations Chapman and Neal were appointed. They soon returned with a communication from the Secretary containing the names of fifteen members who had filed resignations On motion of Chapman these names were stricken from the roll. On motion of Chapman [illegible] there was a call of the House Messrs. Grant (Democrat) White (Democrat), Jackson, Lichtenthaler and Winston (Republican), [illegible] absent Present, twenty five The total of members is only thirty—two short of a quorum. The Speaker announced a [illegible] from the Senate, and on motion of Chapman the "broken wheel" adjourned till 11 A. M. to-morrow.

HOW THE BROKEN WHEEL PROPOSES TO RUN.

The Democrats have not definitely [illegible] what they will do, but the current talk is that they will issue a call to the people to hold elections on a day named in the counties whose members have resigned and then take a recess for some three weeks Upon reassembling, the newly elected persons will be sworn in and the machine will grind indefinitely It is a [illegible] programme, and very like the characteristic Democratic disregard for the Constitution, which provides that the Governor only has power to order elections to fill vacancies

IN THE SENATE.

Col Cornelius asked leave of [illegible] for Mr. [illegible] for the remainder of the session on the understanding that he had paired off with Mr. Hendershott on all political questions Mr. Hendershott stated that he had made such an arrangement with Mr. Adams, but he voted on nearly every question throughout the day, notwithstanding objection was made by Col Cornelius when the vote was taken on the bill to tax the stock of national banks—one of the most purely [illegible] questions of the session Mr. Hend[illegible] excused himself by saying that the [illegible] and vote of Mr. Ad[illegible] [illegible] Messrs Cornelius, Bayley and [illegible] a violation of the [illegible] moved that the [illegible] from voting. Bayley [illegible] nothing to do in the matter [illegible] of honor resting [illegible] with Mr. H[illegible] The President decided that he would not [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] concerned, and that the Senate could not [illegible]

A LIBERAL PROPOSITION.

Mr Cochran objected to the [illegible] of Mr. Haston's name, as he had [illegible] and gone home. Mr. Miller (D [illegible]) moved that Mr. Cochran, the other [illegible] to cast two votes. This was [illegible] by two or three of the Democrats, but the motion was not put. Mr. [illegible] had [illegible] signed in consequence of illness in his family. The fact is that he resigned because he had a big disgust on

BILLS DISPOSED OF.

The bill to provide for [illegible] for three doctors, as a "Board of Visiting Physicians" for the Insane Asylum, was lost, and for the [illegible]

The bill to appropriate funds for a wagon road from Jackson county to [illegible] River, lost.

The bill to provide for the publication of school laws, and the bill to tax at [illegible] were passed

A NICE SCENE

When the House joint resolution to instruct our Congressional delegation to give their paramount support to the [illegible] of the House memorial No 1 (Chapman's) [illegible] to the concurrence of the Senate, Miller moved to amend by inserting and House joint memorial No. 2, (Gazley's) Bayley moved to [illegible] all memorials which have been passed by this Legislative Assembly" Hendershott moved to lay the resolution and amendments on the table, lost. Mr. Brown moved to amend the amendment by inserting "and the joint resolution instructing our Senators to resign," ruled out of order Bayley's amendment was lost, and Miller's was adopted. Mr Brown renewed his motion to amend, but the Democrats voted it down The resolution was then adopted.

The Senate held a session in the evening, but transacted no business of importance, except to ask the Governor by resolution, to return the bill providing for the erection of an Insane Asylum, which the Democrats have now determined to kill

The Marysville (Cal) Appeal has received the following note which shows that West Mar[illegible] is all right for Seymour and Blair "

Where the Responsibility Rests

Our Salem letter to day gives a full account of recent transactions at the State Capital and shows whose fault it is that the appropriation bill was not acted upon For three successive days the Republicans labored with unremitted effort to have the bill taken up but their efforts were constantly thwarted by the schemers on the other side who were determined to prolong the session indefinitely for the purpose of carrying out their partisan programme It being clear that the Democratic majority meant to override all law and precedent and even institute the revolutionary policy which they have been threatening for a year past, the Republicans after mature deliberation and the fullest information regarding the designs of the revolutionary majority, took the only course which remained to prevent the outrageous proceedings which were contemplated Huston, a Democratic Senator from Lane, resigned two days before because he would not be a party to the consummation of the measures which had been agreed upon in the Democratic caucus Who with the record before him can attach any blame to the Republicans for the failure to pass the appropriation bill? No honest man can.

The organ of the Democratic revolutionists in this city says the Republicans resigned "pending the passage of the general appropriation bill" How does this statement appear in the face of the official record of the House, which shows that the Republicans tried to get the bill through on Friday renewed the effort on Saturday, and on Monday before resigning, made four several attempts to have the bill passed which attempts were foiled, one after another, by the Democratic majority? Fortunately the record of the Republican members is so clear on this subject that no one can be at a loss to understand what party is responsible for the State Government being left without any provision for its support for the next two years

The same organ denominates the action of the resigning members as "the most audacious and unprincipled attempt ever made by a minority party in the Legislature to defeat the popular will, to block the wheels of government and bring confusion upon the State" The editor being a carpet-bagger and knowing nothing of our history as a State, is probably entirely ignorant of the fact that in 1860 seven Democratic members of the Senate left their seats and hid themselves away for three weeks, leaving the Senate without a quorum and effectually "blocking the wheels of government" They did this at the commencement of the session, before any business had been transacted. The object of this act of theirs was to prevent the majority from electing United States Senators The seceders did not have the decency to resign, but left the Capital as fugitives, and spent more than half the term of the usual session in lurking in places of concealment in the woods swamps and mountains The resignation of the Republican members of the House was an open, manly act. It took place after the session had been prolonged some days beyond the usual time There was only one measure left to be acted upon, and this the Democratic majority obstinately refused to touch, fully resolved to carry out their partisan designs before allowing the Legislature to adjourn They commenced the session by trampling upon law and usage and disregarding the rights of political opponents, and intended to end it by overturning that part of the State government which they could not lawfully control. But the checkmate is complete The sooner this Ku Klux majority sent to the Capital by the votes of men who have borne arms to overthrow the Government, adjourn and go home, the sooner will they cease to make themselves ridiculous by the [illegible] they are now enacting

The House that Dow Built.

The proposed State Land Office at La Grande is a scheme of that unreconstructed Democratic warrior, Col Dow Beneath the roof of this eleemosynary institution the unprovided-for Colonel had hoped to shelter his [illegible] head from the peltings of the pitiless storm during the approaching winter But Dow proposes and caucus disposes About the time the former thought he had the legislative clapboards and weight poles on his comfortable cabin, and nothing remained to prevent his taking up his abode thereon except a little chinking and daubing on the lobby, along comes the Democratic caucus, puts another person in the nest, and leaves poor Dow shivering out in the cold

This is the bill which yesterday's Herald mentions as one of the necessary measures of legislation defeated by the resignation of the Republican members of the House If so, well done for the resigners! The only necessity for this State Land Office is the great need of a Democratic poorhouse—and it is altogether too small for that We admit that something ought to be done for Dow He would take the editorship of the organ but we demur to that Having got Beriah by heart we don't want any change of performers on the party organ Occasionally he startles us with something new in W flat, but on the whole his pieces are remarkably uniform and easily answered

But we wander from our subject The house that Dow built is in ruins and the disappointed carpet-bagger may thank his stars that Slater is caught beneath the ruins, rather than himself There is yet a refuge for the unfortunate Boyd's poorhouse is open to all without respect to party

The editor of the Herald who pronounced the dispatch from General Ingalls a forgery because the letter 'W' was not inserted in his signature, now admits that the 'W' does not belong there, but says that this fact does not at all impair his belief that the dispatch is a spurious one That is, though Beriah has discovered that the proof on which he founded his belief about the dispatch is false he holds that belief still! He believes or disbelieves without any proof at all, just as it happens to suit him. Thus he makes himself very useful in the capacity of a Democratic editor

FRESHET.—Yesterday was a real Oregon winter day It rained quite hard during the forenoon and afternoon Great hopes are entertained that navigation on the Willamette river will be open in a few days so that boats can run without so much hindrance on account of shoal water.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature

SALEM Oct 28 The Legislature is still in the agonies of prolonged labor

In the House a resolution was adopted for a Committee to ascertain if the resigning members had been paid their per diem and if so on what day The Committee reported that all but Flook had been paid on warrants dated 23d

A message from the Governor was read in response to the resolution informing him that the House had no quorum The Governor said that by inspection of the rolls of the House he finds there are twenty seven members present and six absent which constitutes a constitutional majority for a quorum and concludes with expressing the hope that the House will take immediate steps to insure the presence of the absent members to the end that the labors of the session may be concluded The message was referred to Chapman Neal Winston Waymire and Alexander

Chapman made a violent and pretty speech and regretted that the Constitution interposed an obstacle to the removal of the Governor He used such intemperate language as to be the subject of general comment

In the Senate a resolution was adopted informing the Governor of the disorganization of the House

In response to the request the Governor sent in the act to provide for the erection of an Insane Asylum with a message stating that the bill [illegible] to him regularly signed by the presiding officers of each House that he had approved it that he considered it in the light of a law but would send it to the Senate as he would any other act for information

In the afternoon the Message from the Governor vetoing the bill to remove the Adjutant General, was received The reconsideration of the bill was postponed till this evening

A resolution was adopted instructing our Senators and Representatives to use their influence for a law appropriating national revenue tax among the States and allow each State to collect it in its own way

Heavy rains have fallen and the river is rising slightly

SALEM Oct 28—8 P M —The Senate has just passed a joint resolution to take a recess till the 4th of next March The House will adopt it and the session will end at 11 P M

The Present Figures

The Sacramento Bee with the returns from the elections of Tuesday the 13th before it made the following estimate of the result of the Presidential election It now appears that Grant and Colfax will receive the electoral vote of these Northern States

California	5	Nevada	3
Connecticut	6	New Hampshire	5
Illinois	16	New York	33
Iowa	8	Ohio	21
Indiana	13	Pennsylvania	26
Kansas	3	Rhode Island	4
Maine	7	Vermont	5
Massachusetts	12	West Virginia	5
Michigan	8	Wisconsin	9
Minnesota	4
Nebraska	3		196

Of the Southern States they will receive the vote of

Florida	3	South Carolina	6
Louisiana	7	Tennessee	10
Missouri	11
North Carolina	9		46

Or in all, 241 Seymour and Blair may carry

Alabama	8	Maryland	7
Arkansas	5	New Jersey
Delaware		Oregon
Georgia	9
Kentucky	11		53

There will be 294 votes in the Electoral College (In a full College there would be 317, but Virginia 10, Mississippi 7 and Texas 6—23 in all—will not be entitled to a voice there) Of these, 148 is a majority and as Grant will have at least the number allowed him above, he will have 93 majority, or about double the majority that Seymour will have votes! We do not think now that Seymour will win all the States given to him in this calculation, nor do we believe that Grant will lose one of those set down for him Indeed the chances are that Seymour's vote in the Electoral College will be much less than 53—and if it were not for the negro vote he will get in the South, he would scarcely know after election that he had been a candidate! It is no wonder that he says the nomination has cast him upon a sea of troubles

GREELEY'S 'RECOLLECTIONS' —That valuable series of papers which Greeley contributed to the New York Ledger, under the name of Recollections of a Busy Life is published in a remarkably good looking volume by Francis Dewing & Co, of San Francisco We take it for granted that few readers have let the opportunity slip by of noticing these essays, to some extent at least in their progress through the press for which they were written but very many of them possess permanent value and those who know what they are will surely be glad of a chance to possess and preserve them in a convenient handsome and durable form The book has been revised, and in part rewritten by the author, and much original matter has been added since the essays were published in the New York Ledger Mr Greeley is certainly a man of prodigious intellectual activity and his history, with the varied reminiscences of his life and the discourses he gives on the wide range of topics connected with his own experience must make the book a welcome one to almost every class of readers The volume is sold by subscription James Dewing, agent for Oregon, will introduce it here very soon

Some of the Democrats are whining about the expense of holding special elections to fill the vacancies caused by the late resignations They need give themselves no concern No special elections will be held The next election of members of the Legislature will take place in June 1870 If the fragmentary body at Salem wishes to meet and adjourn from day to day until that time we know of no one who will offer the smallest objection

FOLLOWING THEIR LEADER —Jefferson Davis has long been the leader of the Democratic party He was the malign influence during the Administration of Franklin Pierce the author of all the proscriptions and tyrannies in Kansas the chief assailant of Andrew Reeder who was removed from his position as Governor of that Territory because though educated in the strictest school of State Rights Democracy he would not tolerate the aggressions of the slaveholders upon the popular will In the Senate, during Buchanan's Administration, he simply carried out the same odious and cruel policy, and when, finally his doctrines and his efforts culminated in rebellion, he became, by a natural process, its exponent and its leader But in nothing has he been more faithfully followed by the Democratic party than in his devotion to the heresy of repudiation The man who toiled to disgrace and succeeded in disgracing the public credit of Mississippi is of course in favor of the repudiation of the national debt His great desire and that of his disciples is to reduce our bonds and currency to a level with those of the extinct confederacy and hence when Mr Pendleton insisted that these bonds should be redeemed with greenbacks he was simply carrying out the doctrines of the rebel chief in All classes of voters should bear these historical facts in view especially our German fellow citizens They should remember that five hundred millions United States bonds are held in their Fatherland, and that every vote they throw for Seymour and Blair brings ruin upon their friends and brothers at home —Washington Chronicle

"BLACK AND BLOODY DAYS — He (Grant) tried it again on the following Thursday, the 12th of May (1864) The events of that day —the blackest bloodiest, and most lamentable day in the military annals of the Republic furnish a theme upon which it is difficult to dwell with calmness —N Y World

On recalling the incidents of that day we can well understand why the World and other supporters of Forrest Hampton & Co cannot dwell upon them with 'calmness' It was upon that identical Thursday May 12 1864 that Barlow's and Gibbon's Divisions captured at Spottsylvania three thousand rebels including Major General Edward Johnson and Brigadier General H W Stewart with thirty cannon twenty stands of colors and an immense amount of small arms It was on that day that Hancock sent word to Grant I have captured from thirty to forty guns I have finished up Johnson and am now going into Early While all the loyal North were wild with joy over the glad tidings the disloyal hung their heads with grief Of course they cannot now recall them with calmness Donelson, Vicksburg Chattanooga and Farmville, which wound up the rebellion are all black, bloody and damnable days to them —N. Y. Commercial.

FROM THE COLUMBIA —A friend furnishes us the following items relative to matters down the river The mills at Oak Point W T have been running until lately on a short allowance of water now working up to their capacity which amounts to about 300 000 feet per season The proprietor is putting up a new planer and has a load of lumber for San Francisco On the same three miles above the Point is a very vein of coal which is yet undeveloped and six miles below a vein of good coal near the river which the owner has been working at for the last four months to prove it.

A few miles below the Point in Washington Territory is Cathlamet Landing one of the oldest settlements on the river above Astoria Near here is the dead tree, which was years ago illustrated in one of the Indian pictorials Near Cathlamet is located the most forest of large spruce trees to be found on the coast A new lumber mill is talked of for this point and would add materially to the thrift of the settlement Nearly opposite on the Oregon side and a few miles by water stands Westport which is a camp, the pet and project of Capt West A company run circular and muley saws and are moved by two 22 inch turbines and one overshot and are turning out 125 000 feet of lumber per month It is near the center of the salmon fisheries on the river There are a dozen different fisheries reaching some miles up and down the river from this point The company are just completing here a new building by 86, upon which nearly finished they have a store and office 30 by 40 feet two stories a house 60 by 60 feet two stories Here our which labor during the fishing season they employ men, being the largest packing establishment on this Northern coast The salmon are prepared in tin cans and like sardines may be eaten without further cooking and will keep for years.

All those who attended the theatre last bear testimony to the assertion that the never had an opportunity of witnessing a more intensely interesting drama last night The Ticket of Leave play in the largest Eastern cities here should be encouraged by all Much might be said of the individual of the whole troupe last night and we upon as making invidious comparisons to express the approbation the entire audience at the manner in which the part of Robert Brierly, and Miss Willoughby, Mrs Bates as Mary Ed as Hawkshaw Mr Fuller as Jem as Melter Moss, seemed perfectly at home in their respective characters was present, and from the approbation by all, we presume upon a rush this the same play

Grover addressed the Democracy at last night. The crowd was not large nor displayed by the audience, apparently the earnestness of the speaker We regret is not in a better cause as his talent him to accomplish much, whereas his efforts elect Seymour and Blair will doubtless be last night was well delivered and style, but the subject matter was about political sophistry

Many of our citizens will remember that years ago Charley Prior, went on a bender a good many since) and for several days going through the streets hallooing 'Hoo and education! Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Man wants a Tonic—a true one
And every year and month brings forth a new one
Which after crowding the gazette with cant
The age discovers to be but a fraud
Of such as these let their concoctors vaunt
I ll sing the BITTERS that have cured and won—
The world s great Tonic, which no skill can better—
I mean the matchless BITTERS of HOSTETTER
Doctors were living long before Old Galen
And since, exceeding learned grave and sage
But the stomachics they were found to fail
Success came not until this later age
Now is the era sick folks are made well in
And dread dyspepsia driven from the stage,
Agues remittents headaches—real head splitters—
Vanish like smoke before HOSTETTER S BITTERS
Herbs barks and roots compose the remedy
No mineral poison mars their juices pure
And Rye's mild essence holds them in solution
The taste is pleasant the effect is sure
Never have the Bitters yet proved a delusion;
Try them in time and health and strength secure
The dragon slayer figures on the label
And they like him, to save the weak are able

LATE EASTERN NEWS

THE CAMILLA MASSACRE

[From the Washington [illegible] Oct 6

A report of General Meade upon the late Camilla massacre, embodying the report of General Sibley, reached the War Department to day. It clearly establishes the fact that the whole affair was deliberately planned by the whites and that the reports which have gained general circulation concerning the subsequent hunting down of colored men and similar atrocities really occurred.

MRS LINCOLN [illegible] ARTICLE [illegible]

From the Baltimore Sun Oct 5]

Mrs Lincoln, widow of the late President, with her youngest son, after the marriage of Capt Robert Lincoln, her eldest son, at Washington on the 26th, returned to this city and took rooms at Barnum's City Hotel, where she remained in comparative retirement, being visited by only a few of her personal friends, until Thursday morning last, when she left with her son and was driven direct to Locust Point. Here veiled and unknown, in the large crowd at the pier, the widow and son of the late President went on board the steamer bound to Bremen. She at once went to her state room, and as her name did not appear on the passenger list furnished by the agent of the line—it being withheld, it is supposed, at the request of the lady—the fact of her actual departure for Europe has only become known several days after the sailing of the ship. Those intimately acquainted with Mrs Lincoln aver that her visit to Europe at this time is for the purpose of placing her youngest son at a school in Germany, after which she will probably spend the winter in the south of France.

BOGUS NATURALIZATION PAPERS

[From the Philadelphia Bulletin, Oct. 7]

There is great danger that the Republicans will not carry the city of Philadelphia on Thursday week. There is at present a strong probability that we will be defeated. It may be asked, "What do you mean to say that the atrocious doctrines of Seymour and Blair command the support of a majority of our people?" We answer without hesitation No! If the real sentiment of the citizens could be obtained at the polls, Philadelphia would give ten thousand majority for Tyndale. But unless some measures of the most decisive kind are taken it will matter little what may be the real sentiments of the people. There have been going on in Philadelphia frauds so unblushingly outrageous and criminal that we pause in astonishment at the daring of the attempts made. The wishes of the legal voters will not matter one jot or one tittle in deciding the result unless measures of great magnitude be at once put into operation, and with a firmness and vigilance without ceasing until the forgers and perjurers be brought to justice.

The $200 000 sent into Philadelphia to be disbursed in the interests of Copperheadism by William Wallace, Chairman of the Copperhead Central Committee, is beginning to exhibit results. Baltimore Blood Tubs and Fire Plug Uglies have been imported into Philadelphia by hundreds. Professional swearers have vouched for all the aliens that could be scraped up. Nineteen of these professionals vouched for 1 [illegible] aliens in ten days, swearing that they knew the applicants as residents for five years, when most of them had not been two years in the United States and several hundred had only arrived from Cork this season. They were all put on the minor dodge of having come into the country under eight years of age. Vigorous prosecutions have been instituted against scores of the perjured aliens. But the worst feature of the matter remains to be stated. The Clerk of the State Supreme Court has been issuing naturalization papers, signed, sealed and stamped, with the name of the alien left blank to be filled up by the Copperhead ballot box stuffers at their leisure. Some scoundrels have been arrested for shooting at Tanner processions, and when searched, as many as a dozen of these blank certificates were found in their pockets.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION

[Washington Dispatch (Oct. 3) to the Chicago Tribune]

Chief Justice Chase expresses himself freely to his friends concerning the political situation. He feels entirely confident of Grant's election and not only this, but says further that he will be President for eight years if he desires it, for he will be cautious, will bring good men around him, will make no serious blunders and that his influence [illegible] the Republican party will [illegible] consolidate it. On the other hand, Mr Chase says in his judgment the Democratic party will be [illegible] that [illegible] fully [illegible] with [illegible] and rebel [illegible], and this will surely drive off large numbers of Democrats in the North and leave the party powerless [illegible]. Mr Chase expects to be able to sympathize fully with General Grant's administration.

KENTUCKY KU KLUX IN INDIANA.

[[illegible] (Ind.) Dispatch (Oct 8) to the Chicago Republican]

The Republicans of Evansville have been hard at work for some time past to ferret out the frauds by which that city was carried by the Copperheads last spring, and a few days since they arrested five of the leading Democrats of that city, among whom is A. T. Whittlesey, the postmaster at that place. They are charged with pledging [illegible] voting votes of Kentuckians, who were imported for the occasion. One of the parties arrested has turned State's evidence, and exposed the whole plot. The others waived a preliminary examination, and gave bail for their appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court. The bills of boarding houses and saloon keepers have been paid [illegible], and the affair has created a profound sensation.

[illegible] REVOLUTIONARY LETTER

[[illegible] Commercial]

[illegible] was published by the press [illegible] universally endorsed by the Copperhead [illegible] purporting to have been written by [illegible] to a Mr Kinney urging [illegible] of Texas to vote, and "we shall see [illegible] is inaugurated." Mr Pendleton [illegible] the letter as a forgery. The Mobile Register prints the letter with this preface: "We find the following in the Houston Times of the 12th inst., of which paper Mr. Kinney is senior editor." So the alleged "forgery" is not chargeable on the Northwestern papers, for the letter actually appeared in the Texas Democratic paper to whose editor it was said to have been sent. The impression generally prevails that Pendleton, notwithstanding his denial, did write the letter.

PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT

[From the Chicago Tribune, Oct 2]

Greatly to the chagrin of the Copperheads the public debt statement for September exhibits a [illegible] reduction of the national debt instead of a large increase as they had predicted and made their followers believe. The outstanding debt has been reduced $1,674 724 while the cash on hand shows an increase of $2 015 869, making the total reduction of the debt $3 290 593, or at the rate of sixty three millions per annum.

We call this doing pretty well so soon after the large repeal of taxes which swept the excise from several thousand articles of manufacture, put petroleum and cotton on the free list, cut down the tax on spirits to one third, and reduced it twenty per cent. on tobacco.

This Treasury statement is hard on the Copperheads, and will give them employment throughout the month to explain it away. Delmar had promised them a deficiency of fourteen millions, instead of which there is a surplus of nearly five and a half millions, and their own Democratic Secretary of the Treasury announces that the disbursements of the present month will be lighter than the past, and the next monthly statement will show a further decrease of the debt. The remainder due the [illegible] for extra bounties will be liquidated this year and thereafter that heavy item of forty millions a year will cease to drain the Treasury, and three millions and a half a month to the War Department expenditures. With General Grant for President to oversee the collection and disbursement of the revenue, the present taxation will yield a surplus of one hundred millions per annum to apply in payment of the national debt. With the saving of the interest caused by the paying off of bonds and the steady augmentation of the revenue from increasing wealth and population it is safe to predict that one third of the present debt will be liquidated during General Grant's first term of office.

CONNECTICUT GOES

[From the New York Tribune Oct 6]

Democratic demonstrations have a way of coming just before Republican victories. New York Democrats will read this morning with the reports of their great meeting last night the returns showing their loss of Connecticut. That State has followed in the path of Vermont and Maine. All the returns from the town elections held yesterday indicate Republican gains and betoken our sure triumph there in November.

Last spring Stamford was Republican by 24 now it gives us a majority of 2. Last spring New London gave a Democratic majority of 26 now it gives Republican by 10. Last spring Danbury gave us a majority [illegible] now it gives us 8. Last spring Waterbury gave the Democrats [illegible] majority now it gives them only 250. Last spring Middletown gave the Democrats 164 majority now it elects a part of the Republican ticket. Last spring Hartford gave the Democratic State ticket by [illegible] majority of 254 now it goes Democratic by only 91—a loss in that single city of 1,326.

Friends in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Connecticut points the way to victory! Do as well in proportion one week from to day and the Presidential campaign is already won.

Mr Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes: It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing [illegible] Chronic [illegible] and Lung [illegible] entitles Dr Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, [illegible] the Diseases, Lame etc.

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR-SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented has been brought to Portland by who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon; and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this state with machines and to sell county rights to measure the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team instead of walking and carrying the heavy sack and then walking and dragging his grain in.

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines and has happily succeeded in this invention, in producing a machine which while it carries the farmer as it [illegible] sows wheat, barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand and at the same time the harrow attached to it immediately behind covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres. [illegible] placed an improper estimate on the [illegible] of Oregon farmers if this machine [illegible] in this State as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors [illegible] after this manner:

LINCOLN (Placer Co) Sept [illegible]

MR H A GASTON—Dear Sir: I have two [illegible] machines (X-L-SIOR) which I think are the best for sowing grain I have not as many flings as the [illegible] as directed but I do not think [illegible] to sow any better than they do. [illegible] them perfectly

EXTINGUISHER

PORTABLE

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has heretofore been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time fire is first discovered (when every moment of delay is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtha, and combustible materials in [illegible] use.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL

San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of long standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousand of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering from a secret loathsome disease from the effects [illegible] absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. It is a horrid situation, thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible soul destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and consulted without delay. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities [illegible] skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europeans. Be aware of these quacks and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depravity does not indulge excessively to an unlimited extent by the youth of both sexes [illegible] producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures: viz. sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noises like the rustling of leaves, [illegible] diminished intellect, loss of confidence and diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating the disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these terrible maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME

Persons at a distance can be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who will bogus swindle and pretend to cure the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are [illegible] and [illegible] too lazy to work at their trades. Some are discarded shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1867. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon cannot deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252. REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
